SUNDAY

DAY 2 SEOUL CITY TOUR WITH LUNCH (B, L)

GYEONGBOKGUNG PALACE

Today, after enjoying your breakfast, start your energy day with the city tour to explore Seoul landmarks: Gyeongbokgung Palace, the primary palace of the Joseon dynasty that was established in 1395 (the fourth year of King Taejo's reign) after the foundation of the dynasty in 1392.

During the visit, you might have the opportunity to watch the changing of the royal guards' ceremony at Gyeongbokgung Palace (10:00 – 10:20 AM). This tradition has been performed for centuries in Korea and is a symbol of the nation's rich culture and history.

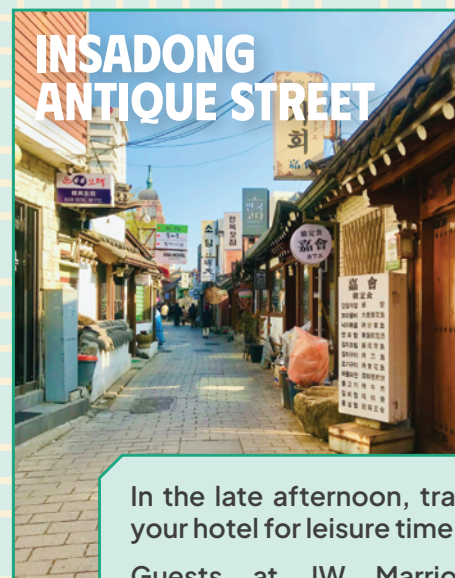

After that, transfer you to the restaurant for a delicious local lunch.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF KOREA

Before heading to Insadong Antique Street for shopping time, we continue by visiting The National Museum of Korea, a place where you can explore the essence of Korean arts and culture. The museum combines Korean history, life, and arts, from hand axes of the Paleolithic period, to celadons of the Goryeo dynasty, to paintings of the Joseon dynasty, to modern photography.

INSADONG
ANTIQUE STREET

In the late afternoon, transfer back to your hotel for leisure time.

Guests at JW Marriott, Fairmont Ambassador, or Grand InterContinental can enjoy a one-time free round-trip transfer to Myeong-dong Night Market from 6–10 PM. (Schedule TBD.)

Remarks: The sightseeing spot orders are subject to change according to the logistics plan and traffic conditions.
